Returned Payment Policy

Payments that are returned for any reason are subject to a $30 returned payment fee. Subsequent returned payments will subject the student account to a financial hold which will not be removed until the payment(s) clear the financial institution. Additionally, students who register for subsequent semesters and have a returned payment, will be given one opportunity to pay the outstanding balance due to LHU. Failure to pay this balance will result in any registered courses being dropped from the student's schedule.
