

ROOM CONSOLIDATION POLICY

Students who find themselves in unrequested single room/apartment situations because of losing a roommate have the following options:

- Consolidation with a student in the same residence hall who is in a similar situation without a roommate.
- Retain the single room and pay the established single room rate, only if there is no overcrowding.

(see On Campus Residency Requirements).

---