7:00 pm

multipurpose room of the Parsons Union Building

As part of LHU's UpWrite Reading Series, Rei Berroa will present a Spanish musical soir ee with his poetry and guitar at Lock Haven University. His poetry will include selections from his DC Poets Against the War annual readings. Professor of Modern and Classical Languages at George Mason University, Berroa was born in the Dominican Republic and is the author of twenty-two books, including Book of Fragments (Calcutta, India, 1992), Libro de los fragmentos (Buenos Aires, 1989), Los otros (Santo Domingo, 1983), En el reino de la ausencia and Retazos para un traje de tierra (Madrid, 1979), Ideolog a y ret orica (Mexico, 1988), co-author of Literature of the Americas (Dubuque, 1986), and a contributor to the anthology DC Poets Against the War. In addition, he helps lead the Poetry Marathon at Teatro de la Luna. His LHU performance is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase and signing. In addition to the evening event, Berroa will be visiting classes and meeting with student groups.
