Criminal Justice

Associate of Arts

This two-year degree will prepare you for a career in law enforcement, corrections, law, and government. It is specifically designed for transfer to a four-year (bachelor's degree) program in Criminal Justice with junior standing. You will receive a comprehensive base in law enforcement, corrections, social problems, juvenile delinquency, and racial and ethnic relations. The program emphasizes critical thinking, creative problem-solving, ethical decision-making, and support for and understanding of Constitutional protections for the people of the United States. Careers include correction officer, police officer or detective, deputy sheriff, paralegal, police dispatcher, bailiff, immigration guard, legal transcriber, probation officer or court reporter.
