Bachelor of Science - Applied Health Studies Track

The Applied Health Studies Track is a degree completion program for those who are certified, licensed or registered in a healthcare profession. Candidates will have graduated from an accredited healthcare program (i.e. medical radiology, occupational therapy assistant, surgical technology, etc.) and have earned an associate's degree. After graduation, many of these professionals have a desire to continue their education and earn a bachelor's degree. The purpose of the Applied Health Studies Track is to prepare the student to grow as a professional and assume a leadership position in healthcare.
