Thursday, March 19, 2009 2:00 PM -- Russell Hall 128

Committee Members Present: Brent May, Jill Mitchley, Jim Theeuwes, David White, Lou Widmann

Committee Members Absent: Doug Campbell, Charles Morgan

I. The entire meeting was devoted to discussion of the Probation/Suspension Policy.

Used the 1993-2001 policy as a foundation for discussions

Recommendations

Probation

Probation is a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.000.

If a student is placed on probation, s/he will be limited to a maximum of 16.0 sh the next semester of enrollment. Students placed on probation are urged to repeat courses in which low grades were earned and to consult with their academic advisor on a regular basis.

Suspension

The second consecutive semester of probation results in suspension.

If a student receives a semester grade point average of 0.000, s/he will be automatically suspended. Students on suspension must sit out one semester; no appeal is possible for an immediate return. However, if the cumulative grade point average is 2.000 or higher, the student will remain in good academic standing.

If a student's cumulative grade point average becomes less than 1.000, s/he will be suspended; no appeal is possible for an immediate return.

Students who receive a cumulative grade point average below that required for the hours attempted will be suspended. In addition, to avoid suspension, students must receive a grade point average based on the chart below.

Semester Hours Attempted*	Minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average
0.50 to 15.00	1.500
15.50 to 30.00	1.700
30.50 to 60.00	1.900
More than 60.00	2.000

*Attempted hours include accepted transfer hours and repeated hours.

Students may appeal a suspension based on the above minimum cumulative GPA (starting with 1.500).

During a period of suspension, a student may not enroll in the university (including summers and online courses or other campuses of LHU).

Miscellaneous

Students will be reviewed at the close of the summer sessions.

II. Next meeting is Thursday, March 26 at 2:00 PM in Russell Hall 128.

III. Meeting adjourned approximately 3:00 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jill R. Mitchley
