Student author(s):

The author(s) hereby submit the following manuscript for review to the Keystone Journal of Undergraduate Research. They affirm that the work presented in this manuscript is their own original research unless otherwise acknowledged as outside references in the literature cited. The author(s) conducted the research with the help of the above listed mentor and have received approval to publish this article from them. In signing this form:

- Each author acknowledges the submission of this manuscript to be published in the KJUR, an electronic journal published by Pennsylvania Association for the Advancement of Undergraduate Research (PAAUR).
- Each author acknowledges that they participated in the work in a substantive way and is prepared to take public responsibility for the work.
- Each author understands that the article will be blind-reviewed by a panel of faculty reviewers who will recommend acceptance for publication; acceptance with revisions; or reject for publication.
- Each author certifies that they have followed the accepted standards of scientific, creative, and academic honesty and ethics.
- Each author confirms that the publishing of this manuscript by the KJUR does not conflict with any other copyrights or legal bindings and agrees not to publish the manuscript in any other form prior to publication in the KJUR.
- Each author is aware that some research journals may require exclusive rights to the research they publish and understands that by publishing in KJUR may preclude the article being published in another journal.
- Each author understands that the KJUR maintains the right to reprint any portions of the submitted work for educational and advertisement purposes.
- Each author understands that KJUR is published under the Creative Commons license and that the lead author retains the copyright.
- Each author understands that the lead author retains the right to present any part of the research in any form in other publications.

Mentors:

The Keystone Journal of Undergraduate Research strives to publish the most outstanding scholarship of undergraduates at the PASSHE Universities. Therefore, the paper submitted should be of the highest academic caliber, should conform to the documentation standards prescribed by the KJUR, should adhere to rigorous investigative techniques, and should be essentially free of errors.

By signing this form, I acknowledge that I have read the paper named above and critiqued the manuscript on content, method, style, grammar, and overall presentation; and that the planning, execution, and writing of the manuscript represent primarily the work of undergraduate students. To the best of my knowledge, the primary student(s) has (have) followed the accepted standards of investigation, creativity, academic honesty and ethics as they conducted the research. I approve this manuscript for submission to the Keystone Journal of Undergraduate Research.

I have read the Statement on Faculty-Student Collaboration and Co-Authorship on the KJUR website. According to the aforementioned guidelines, my level of participation on this manuscript is consistent with (please check ONE box below)

- Authorship (last author after student authors).

- Mentorship (name will appear below authors and will be identified as Faculty Mentor).
