Culture through Coffee at Ave 209 Coffee House: Destination Spain

LOCK HAVEN, PA-Lock Haven University's Institute for International Studies will be hosting a coffee house featuring the Kingdom of Spain on Thursday, November 17, 2011 from 6:30 p.m.- 8:00 p.m. at Avenue 209 Coffee House. The community is invited to this free event.

LHU exchange student Alejandro Noguera from Madrid, Spain, will share some insight into his country, culture, and the educational system. Please join him at Avenue 209 for a taste of Spanish food and fun. Taste Tortilla Espanola and make a carnation, the flower of Spain, or a futbol, or a soccer ball, as we Americans call it.

Lock Haven University's Institute for International Studies (IIS) partners with three universities in Spain: University of Malaga/Ronda's Public Foundation for University Studies in Ronda, Spain; Centro Universitario Estema in Valencia, Spain; and Antonio de Nebrija University in Madrid, Spain.

For more information on LHU's international programs contact the IIS at http://www.lhup.edu/international\_studies/ or by calling the IIS at 570-484-2140.

Lock Haven University is a member of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE), the largest provider of higher education in the commonwealth. Its 14 universities offer more than 250 degree and certificate programs in more than 120 areas of study. Nearly 405,000 system alumni live and work in Pennsylvania.
