LHU students celebrate U.S. Constitution

On September 17, Lock Haven University students celebrated the 224th anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution.

In honor of Constitution Day, the residents of High Hall, Smith Hall and Woolridge Hall provided educational programs on the Constitution, including posters and bulletin board displays, a Constitution quiz, and information on the U.S. Constitution posted on the High Hall Facebook page.

Lock Haven University is a member of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE), the largest provider of higher education in the commonwealth. Its 14 universities offer more than 250 degree and certificate programs in more than 120 areas of study. Nearly 405,000 system alumni live and work in Pennsylvania.
