LHU Women's Rugby hoping for 2nd national title Headed to national tournament this weekend

The Lock Haven University Women's Rugby Club is having an extremely successful year.

The club team beat Millersville 10-3 on November 5 to win the EPRU (Eastern Pennsylvania Rugby Union) championship and moved on to play second-ranked Fairfield College in Connecticut. They beat Fairfield 33-17 and are heading to the national tournament in Cherry Hill, N.J. this weekend for a chance to repeat as National Champions.

The LHU women will play on Saturday and again on Sunday for either 1st or 3rd place, depending on what happens on Saturday.

Dr. Erin A. Kennedy, Department of Psychology, is LHU Women's Rugby adviser. She commented, "Club sports sometimes don't get the attention they deserve and I am so proud of these women for accomplishing so much with less guidance and fewer resources. They are an outstanding group of hard-working women and I wish them the best."

Lock Haven University is a member of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE), the largest provider of higher education in the commonwealth. Its 14 universities offer more than 250 degree and certificate programs in more than 120 areas of study. Nearly 405,000 system alumni live and work in Pennsylvania.
