LHU students raise money for war-affected children in Congo

Lock Haven University's Project Haven will be hosting an Open Mic Night on November 9, 2011 from 7 p.m. – 9 p.m. at Avenue 209 Coffee House in downtown Lock Haven.

Project Haven is a group of students dedicated to helping war-affected children in Congo advocate for their freedom. Proceeds will also help rehabilitate those affected. The Open Mic Night is to educate the population of Lock Haven by raising awareness and funds through a shared interest in music and the arts. The night will consist of talented performers and all are welcome to perform and/or attend.
