MISSION STATEMENT

Lock Haven University provides affordable undergraduate and graduate education that prepares students for a global and technically advanced society. We do this by delivering a liberal arts and science education with a focus on professional and applied programs designed to be responsive to the needs of the Commonwealth. The student experience is anchored by relevant real world experiences and broad co-curricular opportunities that enhance personal and professional growth. Our campuses, located in the heart of Pennsylvania, provide natural beauty and foster a safe and supportive community. Our modest size allows for close personal interactions with staff and professors known for their passion for teaching and student success.
