The Location
The University of Cagliari is located in the capital of the island of Sardinia, a region of Italy. The city of Cagliari has about 165,000 inhabitants including the outlying townships. An ancient city with a long history, Cagliari has seen the occupation of several civilizations. Steps away from the beach and home to the Primate Roman Catholic archdiocese of Sardinia, the city is an important regional cultural, educational, political and artistic center, known for its diverse architecture and historic sites. The city offers students a wide range of social and cultural activities all reasonably priced.

The University
The original university was founded in 1606; it now has about 30,000 enrolled students, a teaching staff of over 1,200 and a technical-administrative staff of about 1,300 people. In addition, there are 270 visiting professors. University of Cagliari offers academic excellence, innovative programmes, exchange opportunities, facilities, including all levels and types of sporting facilities.

Academics
Courses available in English for LHU students at UC include Italian Language, Marketing, Economics, Tourism Management, Geography, and History of Music. Keep in mind that UC offers an intensive language course for LHU students in September (Italian summer program) for 150 Euros.

Housing
The University of Cagliari provides accommodation for students at the local “Casa dello Studente” (University Student Halls). Accommodations must be booked well in advance since there are a limited number of places reserved for international students. Accommodation at the University Students Halls costs 300 Euros per month for a single stay room.
Air Travel
Students are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. Please see the international office for assistance.

Tuition
LHU students continue to pay LHU tuition and fees while attending the University of Cagliari. Students are billed for tuition and fees plus an additional $150 International Service Fee. Keep in mind that all financial aid can apply toward your study in Italy since you are participating in a LHU sponsored program. Students do not pay any tuition or fees in Italy. Please note, however, that it will be necessary to pay for activities such as athletic club memberships, if you wish to utilize those services. Non-LHU students are billed LHU tuition and fees and a $150 International Service Fee.

Academic Calendar
The academic year has two terms. The first term begins in the first week of October, ending in late December. The second term begins in February and goes on until the end of May.

Health Insurance
All students are required to maintain a health insurance policy that will provide coverage while abroad and for the entire duration of this period. Information on international health insurance providers can be obtained from the Institute for International Studies. You may find that your present health insurance policy includes overseas coverage. It is important, however, that your carrier provide written verification of such coverage.

So, how do I get started?
Simply come by the Institute for International Studies to pick up an application form. Remember! The deadline for application is March 1 for the fall term and October 1 for the spring term.
