|               | Parents- Information Sessions:Real ConversationsDescription: Transitioning to college can sometimes be difficult. Part of that difficulty is the uncertainty that lies between high school and college. College bound students need a clear expectation of what the next step entails. This Real Conversation is designed to paint a clearer picture of what is ahead for your student and how we can partner together to prepare for this transition.

Student Panel
Description: During the panel, parents will hear about campus life from the perspective of current LHU students. Parents will also have the opportunity to get advice from the panel, and ask questions.

3:00PM

Students- Information Sessions
Financial Literacy
Description: This presentation will provide students with tools and information designed to help them understand their financial responsibilities. We will discuss basic money management, values, and working with financial aid. This is the foundation of our financial literacy program that continues throughout the first year experience.

Student Panel
Description: During the panel, students will hear about campus life from the perspective of current LHU students. Students will also have the opportunity to get advice from the panel, as well as ask other questions.

Student Success
Welcome to College Success! This presentation will tie together many of the factors necessary for academic, and social success at LHU. Whether you are looking to develop leadership skills, wanting to make new friends, or enhance your resume for future jobs, this presentation provides a myriad of resources and opportunities for students to check out on campus. College is about more than just the classes, so get involved and be a part of campus life at LHU.

Parents:
Financial Literacy
Description: This presentation will provide you with tools and information designed to help you support your student in their quest to become financially independent. The goal is to facilitate conversations and interactions between you and your student. We will provide information and access to various financial literacy programming.

Student Success
Description: The success of our students is at the heart of everything that we do at Lock Haven University. It is our belief that parents play a critical role in their children’s lives and their success. To this point, we have developed this session to answer your questions, and give parents resources to help them support their son or daughter during their time at LHU.

Parents to Parents
Description: During this session, parents will meet informally with members of the LHU Parents’ Association to discuss topics such as student services, academics, and financial aid from a parent’s perspective. Parents can expect the conversations to be informative, frank, and heartfelt.
